

1. Malin Kundang lived with his family at the mouth of Batang Arau

Near the mouth of the Batang Arau River there lived many fishing families. Malin Kundang was the only child of a poor fisherman and his wife. He was a spoilt naughty child.

2. Malin Kundang has a scar on his forehead

Malin Kundang had a scar on his forehead which could still be seen when he grew up to be a well-built and strong young man. His strength enabled him to become a crewman on a ship.

3. Malin Kundang left his parents to become a sea captain

Malin Kundang's parents are sad to see their son leave. As the year's passed Malin Kundang became a rich sea captain and got married. During this time his father dies but his mother continues to hope to see Malin Kundang again. And then one day Malin Kundang decides to return home.

4. Malin Kundang arrived at the port

Malin Kundang arrives at Batang Arau and his scar reveals who he is. Malin Kundang's mother is informed that her son has returned as a rich merchant. She prepares his favourite food before going to the port. At the port Malin Kundang pretends not to recognize her.

5. Malin Kundang's mother is angry at her son

Malin Kundang claims that his mother is dead and has his crewmen drag her away. She shouts that he is wicked and ungrateful. She is heartbroken.

6. A storm hit Malin Kundang's ship

The next day Malin Kundang sets sail but a strong storm rocks his ship. He realizes that God and nature are punishing him and he prays for forgiveness but the ship sinks