

1. The princess brushed her fragrant hair every night

There was a beautiful princess known for her fragrant hair. People would stand by her window to enjoy the scent as she brushed her hair at night. She is the daughter of a powerful giant king.

2. A young man fell in love with the princess

One day, a handsome young man arrived in the city and was captivated by the scent of the princess' hair. He found the princess at the giant king's palace and they instantly fell in love.

3. Giant soldiers searched for the princess in the forest

Knowing that the giant king would not allow them to marry, they decided to flee into the thick forest. The giant king was angry. He ordered his giant soldiers to uproot the trees in the forest to find his daughter. But they did not find her.

4. The big hole became Yeakh Laom Lake

The giant king then ordered the giant soldiers to dig the forest to search for the princess. But they did not find her. The giant soldiers gave up, leaving a big hole in the ground. Rain filled the hole with water. This became the Yeakh Laom Lake.